

2023 Ron Waxman DASC Meritorious Service Award Nomination Form

Deadline for nomination submissions is 5:00pm PDT, Friday June 30, 2023

The Design Automation Standards Committee (DASC) is responsible for the standardization of Design Automation related standards in the IEEE Standards Association. This award is named for Ron Waxman, a founder of the DASC, in recognition of his many years of leadership, and service to IEEE and international standards.

The annual Ron Waxman DASC Meritorious Service Award recognizes commendable accomplishments by DASC members. The DASC Awards Committee calls for nominations and selects the recipient per the DASC Policies and Procedures.

The DASC members confirm the selection.

Submit your nomination today and help us recognize and applaud the efforts of those who make Design Automation standards a reality. The recipient will be recognized at IEEE Standards Association (IEEE-SA) or DASC-related event, receive a distinctive plaque, and be featured in an announcement on the DASC web site.

This award will be given to an individual or entity who:

- Is a current or past member of DASC or a DASC Working Group
- Puts forth extra effort to further the DASC and its mission
- Makes or causes a noticeable improvement in DASC operations, policies, or practices, and/or
- Significantly improves or strengthens a DASC relationship with other IEEE or external standards development organizations
- Is not a current member of the DASC Awards Committee

The nomination form is available on the DASC web site at www.dasc.org and is also emailed to the DASC reflector. The individual filling out and submitting the form shall be responsible for ensuring the accuracy of the information submitted. Endorsements for the nomination are encouraged.

Nominations should be sent to the Chair of the DASC Awards Committee.

The IEEE-SA Award ceremony is scheduled for Sunday, December 3, 2023 in or near Somerset, NJ.

Deadline for nomination submissions is 5:00pm PDT, Friday June 30, 2023
